

Minister Betty Booker: A Devoted Servant of the Kingdom of God

Minister Booker shares the Gospel, both in season and out. She is a teacher, intercessor, motivator, and preacher at heart, and God remains faithful in opening many doors for her to share the Gospel.

Minister Booker fully surrendered her will to the Lord and announced her calling in 2011. She was licensed to preach on December 2, 2012 and ordained on January 5, 2019. In 2024, November 3, Minister Booker connected with Great Life Ministries. She received her ministerial license and was ordained by Great Life on December 8, 2024 and serves the Ministerial Training Leader.

Minister Booker is employed at Downtown Ministries as the Director of Operations at Our Daily Bread in Athens, GA. Her leadership allows her to share nourishing meals, vital resources, a safe space, and rest for the underserved in our community always pointing them to Christ. Her impactful work in the community is driven by her genuine love, wisdom, and a strong desire to make a Godly difference in the lives of those she encounters.

Minister Booker, a native of Athens, GA, a mother, a grandmother. Betty was proudly and blissfully married for thirty- years to her best friend, Minister, Victor Booker, who went home with the father on August 4, 2021. Despite this profound loss, she never abandoned her servanthood, faithfulness, or loyalty to her leaders, ministry, community, friends, or family. Her unwavering faith and dedication profoundly mark this warrior's life journey. Her entire life is a living testament to her strong resilience, steadfastness, and inspiring admiration in all who know her.

Her Cherished Scripture: "He that comes to God must believe that HE IS a rewarder of those that diligently seek him."
(Hebrew 11:6)

Life Verses: "Everyone will hate you because of me, but the one who stands firm to the end will be saved" (Mark 13:13). "I don't look back; I lengthen my stride and reach forward to what is before me" (Philippians 3:13).
