

Hilton J. Turner Jr.: A Life of Faith and Family

Hilton J. Turner Jr. was born on November 20, 1965, to Hilton J. Turner Sr. and Jeannette Turner in Augusta, Georgia. He completed his early education at Lucy C. Laney High School, graduating in 1983. Following high school, Hilton served in the U.S. Army from 1983 to 1990.

He is the proud father of three adult children: Octavious, 35; Jamaica, 34; and Olivia, 33. Hilton is also a grandfather to seven grandchildren. In 2005, he married Clester Burch Turner, gaining two additional adult children from Clester: Jasmine, 40, and Jabbary, 32, along with Jabbary's son, Jax, who is five years old.

Hilton learned about Jesus at a young age, but it wasn't until 1993 that he dedicated his life to Christ. He faced several years of active addiction but was delivered from that lifestyle over 20 years ago. On May 15, 2015, he was ordained as a deacon, and on March 24, 2019, he was licensed as a minister. Minister Turner now serves under Pastor Obie J. Bradford at Great Life Ministries.

In addition to his ministry, Hilton works as a security officer with Allied Universal Security, where he has been employed for seven years. He cherishes his wife, children, and family. An outdoor enthusiast, he enjoys fishing and often spends time sharing the gospel with others. At home, he finds joy in reading and listening to music, embracing a simple life that reflects his values.
