

Deacon Carlton Smith

Leader, Coach, and Mentor

Deacon Carlton Smith has been happily married to his wonderful wife, Mahogania, for eight and a half years. Together, they have four children and two grandchildren. Carlton has dedicated 23 years to his career and is a proud Navy veteran. He is the youngest of three boys, born to John Smith and Mary Lindsay. As a coach and mentor at Restoration and Reformation Faith Based Consulting, a marriage ministry, Carlton is deeply passionate about assisting others. In his free time, he enjoys restoring classic cars, fishing, and spending time by the ocean. Above all, he holds a deep love for the Lord, continually in awe of the immense love God has for him.
